Enjoy Gilgandra Region...

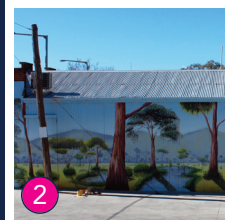

Miller Street, Gilgandra

A country town wouldn't be complete without a great main street. Find restaurants, cafes, a bakery and retail boutiques all within a short walk. Visit our Coo-ee Bronze Sculpture commemorating the centenary of the Coo-ee March.

Hunter Park

Stop for a picnic under Hunter Park's century-old plane trees, only 200 metres from the CBD. Bring the family and enjoy the modern kids play equipment, skate park, public BBQ and the Gilgandra Swimming Pool.

Mural Tour

Our streets are full of colour. Murals illustrating life in Gilgandra and historical events, can be found along Miller Street, Bridge Street and Wamboin Street. Peek below the Jack Renshaw Bridge to see artwork by local Aboriginal artists.

Orana Cactus World

Explore over 40 species of cacti collected from around the world.

Open most weekends or by appointment.
Entry fees apply.
Contact 6847 0566.

Windmill Walk

Walk this 4 kilometre return trail between the Gilgandra Rural Museum and Gilgandra CBD and view our historic windmills. It's a flat, easy river-side walk, perfect to bike or scoot with the kids.

Gilgandra Flora Reserve

Walk through over 8 hectares of native bushland filled with rare and endangered plants. Flowers bloom from August to November. With BBQ, picnic tables, shelters, toilets and water; the Flora Reserve is equipped for you to stay and enjoy the day. Open 7 days, free entry.

Hitchen House

See where the Hitchen Brothers started the 1915 Coo-ee March that put Gilgandra on the map. Their original home holds memorabilia from WWI, WWII and Vietnam.

Country Pubs

Don't miss your chance to visit our pubs in Gilgandra, Armatree and Tooraweenah for a beer, a meal and some country conversation.

Camping and accommodation options available.

Gilgandra Rural Museum

Home of the world famous 'Howard Rotary Hoe' and rare vintage windmills. An outstanding collection of farm machinery, heritage buildings, household and other items from Gilgandra Region's past.
